

Student Name: _____

Grade: _____ Date: _____

1. Cookie Monster bought a box of 24 biscuits at the supermarket. He ate half of the cookies (biscuits) in just 20 minutes. How many biscuits were left?

2. A red-bellied snake 2.5 metres long was caught in the city last week. How many centimetres long is that?

3. Aussie pop singer Kylie Minogue is making a comedy movie on Australia's Gold Coast at the moment. If the movie takes 12 weeks to make, and they commence making it on 20th October, on what date do they hope to finish filming?

4. A box of Weetbix is selling in Australia for $4.80. But, in China, it is selling for 10 times that amount, as people are desperate to buy it, because it is hard to get. What is the price in China for Weetbix?

5. A gorilla called Kumbuka escaped from London Zoo last week. He weighed 184 kg. Jerry is 9 years old and weighs 24 kg. How much more does Kumbuka weigh than Jerry?

6. A Star Wars App on mobile phones allows people to make Star Wars bumper labels. The stickers measure 18 cm x 4 cm. What is the perimeter of each label?

7. With Halloween coming up you might like to make yourself a costume! If you buy a mask for $10 and fabric for a costume for another $25, how much change would you get from $50?

8. A special event called "Haircuts by Children" has had children doing haircuts for customers! If it takes 15 minutes for a hairdresser to give someone a haircut and 10 minutes longer for a child to cut hair, how long would it take for a child to do two haircuts?

9. The Nintendo 64 turned 20 years old this week! It came out in Japan in June 1996 and later in Australia in March 1997. How many months AFTER the Japan release did it come out in Australia?

10. Open-ended Question: In a group of 50 children, there are some who like oranges best, some who like apples best, and some who like both equally. What possible numbers of children could be in each group? Give 3 possible answers.

ANSWERS – EdShop Mid-Primary Worded Worksheet MP 40 16

1. 12 biscuits left
2. 250 centimetres
3. 12th January 2017
4. $48
5. 160 kg more
6. 44 cm
7. $15 change
8. 50 minutes
9. 9 months later (or 8 months, not counting March 1997)
10. Various answers