

Student Name: _____

Grade: _____ Date: _____

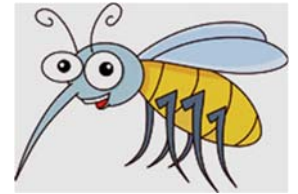

1. A delivery truck was carrying 8 cartons of toilet rolls. Each carton contained 84 toilet rolls. How many toilet rolls were there altogether on the truck?

2. A perfect gift for a boy or girl may be a football or basketball with their name printed onto it. Each personalised ball costs $69.95, plus $9.99 postage. What is the total cost of one of these balls that is received by mail?

3. At the moment, many of the States in Australia have mosquito problems, due to the heavy rains recently. Mosquitoes have 6 legs. If 11 mozzies flew in through Ben's bedroom window, how many mosquito legs were there altogether?

4. One of the big charities has suggested that a donation of $30 will buy 2 solar lights for remote villagers overseas. How much does each solar light cost?

5. Halloween is now over. If six children were in a group trick or treating, and each of those children received 24 lollies, how many lollies did they receive altogether?

6. The world's tallest sandwich has been made in New York City. It was made from 60 pieces of bread. If each slice of bread was 6 mm thick, what was the total height of bread slices in that sandwich, in centimetres and millimetres?

7. The movie "STORKS" runs for 1 hour 37 minutes. How many minutes is that?

8. A recent survey showed that for a boy aged 10 at the moment, he will probably live for another 71 years. What age may he live to?

9. A recent survey showed that for a girl aged 10 at the moment, she will probably live for another 75 years. What age may she live to?

10. Open-ended Question: Jen had a piece of blue ribbon 2 metres long. She cut it into 4 separate pieces. Each piece had a different length. How long could those pieces have been?

ANSWERS – EdShop Mid-Primary Worded Worksheet MP 41 16

1. 672 toilet rolls
2. $79.94
3. 66 mosquito legs
4. $15 each
5. 144 lollies
6. 360 mm = 36 cm
7. 97 minutes
8. 81 years of age
9. 85 years of age
10. Various answers