1. During Book Week last week, a book store sold a “Star Wars Craft Kit” at a price $12.99, or a special price of 2 kits for $12 each if bought together. What would be the cheapest price to buy 5 kits?

2. “Daffodil Day”, on 26th August, is when the Cancer Council raises money to fight against cancer. Zac and his 5 friends each buy a $5 daffodil pin and Zac also buys a $10 teddy bear. How much money is donated by them altogether?

3. A plastic ruler measures 30 cm long. How many rulers would need to be put end-to-end to measure the length of a box that is 2 metres long?

4. The weight of an Olympic gold medal is 412 grams. How many gold medals would be needed to weigh at least 3 kilograms?

5. A special half price offer on chocolate frogs at the supermarket is selling a packet of 15 frogs for $2.29. What is the USUAL price of this packet of chocolate frogs?

6. Last week, August 13th to 21st, was National Science Week around Australia. Mac’s class did 2 experiments each school day of the week. How many experiments did they attempt altogether?

7. Jenny’s mum bought 2½ dozen eggs to make a HUGE birthday cake. How many eggs is that?

8. A box of 100 teabags costs $3.80, but a smaller box of 25 teabags costs $1.40. How much money can be saved by buying the larger box rather than 4 smaller boxes?

9. The difference between two numbers is 14. What may those numbers be?

10. Open-ended Question: It’s Mitzi’s birthday, and she’s asked for her favourite lollies. She wants 20 pineapple lollies (5c each), 25 strawberry and cream lollies (5c each), and three giant python snakes ($1 each). If you have $5 to spend on lollies, will you have enough? By how much/how little? If she doesn’t have enough, how many of each type of lolly would she get within the $5 budget?
ANSWERS - EdShop Mid-Primary Worded Worksheet MP 31 16

1. $36.99
2. $40
3. 7 rulers
4. 8 medals
5. $4.58 per pack
6. 10 experiments
7. 30 eggs
8. Save $1.80
9. Various answers
10. She doesn’t have enough. Various answers.